Correction

■ Based on an incorrect reading of a published report, WORLD wrongly stated that Nimir Petroleum took kickbacks from the purchase of Iraqi oil to finance terrorist activities ("Fueling terrorism," Aug. 9). The article also incorrectly asserted that Khalid bin Mahfouz is "head" of Nimir Petroleum. His sons Abdulrahman bin Mahfouz and Sultan bin Mahfouz are, respectively, chairman of the board and deputy chairman of the board of Nimir Group Ltd. WORLD regrets these errors.
